

Using your Bank's Online Bill Pay Service to make your Olin College of Engineering donation

You can use your bank's online bill pay service to set up an automatic payment of your monthly, quarterly, or annual donation to Olin. In addition to following the specific instructions provided by your bank, please make sure to enter the specific address below AND indicate that the payment is a "DONATION from (insert your name) for (insert one of the specific gift designations listed below)".

Please email the Development Office (development@olin.edu) to inform the office of the name of the bank you used, the amount and designation of your donation. You will receive a receipt from the College via the U.S. mail after your gift is received.

Do not hesitate to contact the Development Office by emailing development@olin.edu or call 781.292.2290 if you have any questions.
