Olin College's Sexual Misconduct Policy was developed to reaffirm the values of our community and to provide transparency about Olin’s sexual misconduct adjudication processes. It is meant to prevent and respond to incidents of Sexual Misconduct.

The Policy applies to students, staff, and faculty. The process described is a non-legal process that is meant to provide support and resources to individuals involved, to implement appropriate supportive measures, and, when requested and appropriate, determine whether a college community member is responsible for violating the Policy.

This flow chart is meant to provide a general overview of supportive and grievance process options. Note that each situation is unique and the specific path taken will vary depending on the circumstances of each particular situation. For detailed information about the Sexual Misconduct Policy, the specific terms of which control over the summary provided here, go to https://www.olin.edu/student-life/sexual-misconduct-title-ix.
